

MRS. UPHAM AGAIN MADE PRESIDENT

All of Old Officers of Wisconsin W. C. T. U. Re-elected.

VISIT WILLARD HOME

Appointments for State Superintendents of Branches and Selection of Evangelists.

CONVENTION CLOSING TONIGHT

President—Mrs. Mary C. Upham, Marshfield, Wis.
Vice President—Mrs. G. I. Follette, Spencer.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. W. A. Lawson, Baraboo.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. Augusta E. C. Strong, Baraboo.
Treasurer—Mrs. Ida W. Black, Green Bay.
By the unanimous vote of the largest state W. C. T. U. convention ever held in the state of Wisconsin the above leaders were chosen for the Wisconsin W. C. T. U. for the coming year. Without exception these five general officers are the ones who have served during the past year and their re-election was an eloquent tribute to the efficiency of their service. As each one was elected she was called before the convention and spoke a few words of thanks after which the audience sang a familiar hymn, making the election an impressive one.

Opens Morning Session
The morning session opened with

W. DeLong, Leon; Miss Lois Russell, Eau Claire.
Recommendations were made by the following department superintendents: Mrs. Hattie E. West, Lake Mills, scientific temperance instruction; Mrs. W. A. Lawson of Baraboo, temperance literature; Mrs. E. W. Shores, Ashland, work among lumbermen and miners; Mrs. E. A. Poorman, Janesville, work among railroad employees.

Superintendents' Reports.
The superintendents' reports all emphasized organized effort and increased vigilance, and the appointment of energetic local superintendents. Mrs. Shores' report was especially interesting and she eloquently urged the unions to send pictures and literature to the lumber men, each union making one lumber camp at least a special charge.

Eau Claire Rescue Home.
In the absence of Dr. Annette Shaw of the W. C. T. U. rescue home at Eau Claire, Miss Lois Russell presented the report of the work which is being done for the unfortunate girls. The report showed that there were fifteen girls in the home Jan. 1, 1900; forty-eight have been received during the year; forty-two have been sent out to earn their living; four have been sent home, and only one ran away from the home. Nineteen babies were in the home Jan. 1. Forty-eight have been born during the year; eight have died; thirty-seven have been placed in homes for adoption; five have been kept by mothers. Five babies have been cared for that were not born in the home. Jan. 1, 1901, there were sixteen girls and seventeen babies in the home.

Interesting items in the financial report showed an indebtedness of $1,758.01; during the year 1900, $985.00 was received from girls and their seducers; $104.71 was re-

SUICIDE OF THE ASSASSIN BRESCHI FOUND DEAD IN HIS PRISON CELL

The Murderer Left Letters Declaring That He Repented of His Crime—The Paterson, N. J. Anarchists Believe He Was Tortured to Death.

Rome, May 23.—Angelica Breschi, the slayer of King Humboldt, suicided yesterday by strangling himself in his cell at Santo Stefano.
From statements made by the jailers it appears the anarchist's nerve soon collapsed under the strain of solitary confinement. Lately he had been plunged into the deepest depression and it was easy to see that his mind was giving away.
Breschi was found dead on the floor of his cell. A strip from his shirt had been made into a rope. This he had twisted around his neck and had thus slowly strangled himself to death.
It was just a year ago that Breschi, who was a member of the Paterson, N. J., anarchist society, shot the king to death as he was riding in his carriage through the streets of Rome.
Breschi left letters declaring that he repented of his crime and could not survive the remorse he felt. He also left an account of the plot for the assassination of King Humboldt. During the last few days Breschi had to be dressed by force. His mental condition had been very bad and his manner violent and excited. Among the letters left by him was one to his wife, another to the prime minister of Italy and a third to King Victor.
Paterson, N. J., May 23.—The news of the suicide of Breschi created a sensation in the anarchist colony here. A majority of them declared that he did not die by his own hands but was tortured to death.

CONVENES PYTHIAN SUPREME LODGE

CHANCELLOR O. H. FETHERS CALLS SPECIAL MEETING.

Illinois Insurance Department Asked To Investigate the Endorsement Rank—Will Try to Restore Stability—Due to a Protest Against an Assessment.

Milwaukee, May 23.—The board of control of the endowment rank, Knights of Pythias, has called upon the department of insurance of the state of Illinois to make a thorough official investigation of the accounts and condition of the organization, and Ogden H. Fethers, supreme chancellor of the order, has called a special convention of the supreme lodge to meet in Chicago on July 9 to act on the report.

This action has been taken because of the protest which has been sent in against the recent special assessment on the members of the endowment rank. Insurance Commissioner Yates of Illinois has said that he will invite the insurance commissioners of adjoining states to co-operate with him in the investigation.

Carlos S. Hardy, the general counsel for the endowment rank, said today in Chicago that the preliminaries for the official investigation were under way. Mr. Hardy added that he did not know whether the convention would result in legal proceedings, as that was for the supreme lodge to decide.

What the members of the order wanted to know was where they stood. The assessment has stirred up the Milwaukee members of the order, and special meetings will be held to decide what to do in the matter.

This will be the first special session of the supreme lodge ever held, and the call has caused a sensation among members of the order and representatives of the governing body. The insurance department of the Knights of Pythias always has been a subject of more or less contention, some influential members even going so far as to favor its abolishment. It is hoped now that the supreme lodge will determine its status once for all.

REVOLVER STORY SHOWN TO BE TRUE

Mrs. Bonine Helps Her Case by Confirmation of Some of Her Confession Statements.

Washington, D. C., May 23.—Detectives are still working actively on the Ayres murder case, and this afternoon unrooled some information showing that in her confession Mrs. Bonine's declaration that she had owned a revolver but had given it away was true. This fact has strengthened Mrs. Bonine's case in the eyes of the authorities because it proves that she was telling the truth at least in this instance.

In further support of her story, her friends are urging that the fact that the extra cartridges lay on Ayres' table in his room indicates that he had made ready for Mrs. Bonine's coming to his apartment, and had just loaded the revolver in anticipation of it. They claim that, this being true, it was probable that he did stand behind the door with the gun in his hand, and that the fatal struggle between the man and the woman occurred as the latter claims.

Rev. S. P. Wilder of Delavan was in the city yesterday on his way home from Edgerton where he attended the Congregational convention which was held in that city this week.

CERTAIN BALDWIN WILL REACH POLE

BEST SCIENTISTS IN WORLD TO GO WITH EXPEDITION.

Their Names Will Not Be Announced, to Prevent Their Families and Friends from Objecting to Their Departure—Another Exploring Party Is Planning to Trail Them.

New York, May 23.—The Baldwin-Ziegler expedition to the north pole will start early in June. William Ziegler, the financial backer of the expedition, explained today that the reason Captain Evelyn Briggs Baldwin had guarded the names of the scientists who would accompany him on the voyage was to prevent them being importuned by their families and friends not to go on such a hazardous trip.

In an interview published today Mr. Ziegler said: "We do not wish to place any information of value in the hands of those who are our competitors in the race to the pole. They are watching every move we make and are trying to get the start of us."

"I have every reason to believe that another exploring party is preparing to trail us and live from our supplies."

We have a crew of sharpshooters and the first man who lays a hand on anything of ours will be a dead man. I have given Mr. Baldwin emphatic orders on that point.
"I am certain that Captain Baldwin will reach the pole and will plant the stars and stripes there. There are good business reasons why we cannot reveal the names of the scientists who will accompany him."

"This much you may say: They are the best in the world. This Arctic exploration is like playing a game or conducting a campaign. There are lots of other fellows watching every move we make, so we cannot afford to give them advantage in knowing who our party will be."

"If a man dares you knock a chip off his shoulder, don't touch the chip. Hit him squarely between the eyes. That is what we are doing. Mr. Baldwin has to do the work, and I do not feel like telling anything that he does not want told."

CAILLES IS WILLING TO SURRENDER

Filipino General Anxious to Submit with All His Men—Courts an Inquiry.

Manila, May 23.—Senor Dancel, an accredited intermediary, has returned here after having had a very satisfactory interview with the rebel commander, General Cailles, who has been declared an outlaw. Dancel says Cailles is anxious to surrender, with his entire command, provided his men are liberated as soon as they take the oath of allegiance. Cailles says that personally he is not afraid of an investigation of his various acts. He says that he never violated the laws of war, and that he has always showed consideration for his prisoners.

Cailles is now concentrating his entire command with a view to facilitating the surrender or all of his force. He is also taking vigorous action to prevent any stragglers from escaping and becoming bandits. Dancel asserts that the surrender of Cailles will cripple General Malvar, who has been relying on the former to make raids.

The Philippine commission held its first session today since its recent trip to various parts of the archipelago. A bill was passed establishing a weather bureau, and amendments were adopted to the municipal and provincial bills. Most of the new judges attended the session of the convention.

DEBS CASES ARE DROPPED

Judge Dismisses Suits Originating in Big Railroad Strikes.

Springfield, Ill., May 23.—The Big American railway union strike of 1894 was recalled in the United States circuit court today, when the following cases were dismissed from the docket with leave to restate: United States vs. Eugene V. Debs. United States vs. American Railway Union.
United States vs. Eugene V. Debs. United States against Clarence Gill, president of the American Railway Union.

The cases against Debs were injunctions restraining him from influencing railroad employees in the big strike of 1894. Clarence Gill was held as accessory to Debs.

CHILDREN EATEN BY A BEAR

Frightful Fate of Two Boys and a Girl in West Virginia.

Job, W. Va., May 23.—To be crushed to death in the embrace of a monstrous black bear and their little bodies afterward mangled and partly devoured was the frightful fate that befell the three young children of E. P. Porterfield, a mountaineer residing about twelve miles southeast of this place. The remains were found yesterday by a searching party which had been out since Sunday evening. The party included John Weldon, a Maryland hunter, who within a few minutes after the discovery of the bodies shot and killed the bear in a neighboring thicket.

Decision Will Stand

Washington, May 23.—The West Point cadets dismissed or suspended for insubordination or misconduct, who are coming here to gain reinstatement will be disappointed. It is declared authoritatively this morning that the decision will not be reversed.

Strikers Resume Work

Washington, May 23.—It is announced at machinist headquarters this morning that fifteen hundred men have resumed work since yesterday, the employers having signed the nine hour agreement.

TWO COLORED MEN LYNCHED BY A MOB

Memphis, Tenn., May 23.—News reached here this morning of two separate lynchings last night near Pheba, Miss. The first victim was Milton Calvert, colored, who was taken away from officers and hanged. He attempted to assault a little white girl. John Williamson, colored, was taken from the house by a mob and shot. He had been living with a white woman and been repeatedly warned to leave the place.

GOLD MINES ARE BESIEGED.

American Property in Mexico Surrounded by Revolutionists.

New York, May 23.—A dispatch to the Herald from the City of Mexico says: The gold mines owned by the Omilian Exploration company of New York in Guerrero del Oro, state of Guerrero, are surrounded by revolutionists according to latest advices.

William Niven of New York, manager of the mines, says that there are four Americans and seventy Indian laborers at the mines and that they have constructed fortifications commanding the trails to the mines. It is thought that the purpose of the revolutionists is to obtain the arms of the Americans. Government troops have been dispatched to the scene. It is hoped that they will arrive in time to prevent the capture of the mines. There is no telegraphic communication with the mines, the nearest office being a distance of three days' ride. The revolution is not large, but troublesome.

Claim Paid; Suit Stopped

Fort Wayne, Ind., May 23.—The suit of Odell & Co. of Cincinnati against Sprague & Van Roy, commission men, alleging embezzlement of $14,000, was settled this morning and criminal proceedings dismissed. The trouble grew out of the Northern Pacific flurry and the failure of speculators here to put up margins.

Prohibition Ticket Named.

Des Moines, Ia., May 23.—The Prohibition state convention today named the following ticket: For governor, A. U. Coates, Dallas county; for lieutenant governor, A. B. Wray, Union county; for supreme judge, J. A. Harvey, Dallas county; for railway commissioner, Wesley Suddot, Polk county.

Hold Brothers for Murder.

Cairo, Ill., May 23.—The trial of the three Brown brothers, charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff Miles Coleman, last February, has opened before Judge Joseph F. Roberts. A plea for a change of venue was denied. Half a hundred witnesses have been summoned.

Fight Ends in Two Murders.

Williamsburg, Ky., May 23.—In the blacksmith shop of the North Jellico Coal company, near Woodbine, John Mitchell was instantly killed, and John Green received a death wound. The men had quarreled and shot each other.

REVIEWED TROOPS AT THE PRESIDIO

President McKinley Was Kept Busy in San Francisco Today.

VISITS SICK SOLDIERS

Christian Scientists Claim Mrs. McKinley's Recovery Was Owing to Their Work.

EFFORTS TO PROTECT CHINA

San Francisco, May 23.—President McKinley reviewed the troops at the Presidio this morning. After the review he visited the sick soldiers in the general hospital. This afternoon he will give a reception to the Ohio society and will receive the Mexican veterans, the California pioneers and the native sons and daughters. Mrs. McKinley may take a drive this afternoon.

The Christian Science enthusiasts here assert that her wonderful recovery is due to their efforts. They say she was given "absent treatment" by the wife of the minister to China, Conger, with the president's consent.

McKinley Will Aid China

President McKinley at a cabinet meeting today indicated his desire to lighten the burden of China in her present dilemma. He is using his utmost efforts to prevent the increase of indemnity and to forestall financial sharks who make a big commission in floating a loan not guaranteed by the powers. He will ask the payment be made easy, so as not to cause the financial ruin of the country.

The president and Secretary of State Hay have been in constant communication with Washington during all their journey west. Dispatches from foreign embassies has been continually arriving and the Chinese situation has received special attention.

The president has been anxious lest the difficulties thrown in the way of an arrangement by the demands of some of the powers might lead to indefinite delay and a consequent increase of the indemnity. The points to be settled are, first, the total amount of indemnity and the share of each power; second, the method of payment.

San Francisco, Cal., May 23.—Secretary Cortelyou said today: "Mrs. McKinley's physicians report that she is now convalescing and is daily gaining strength."

Secretary Cortelyou has ceased issuing regular bulletins about Mrs. McKinley's health, but he stated this morning that she had a very good night and was sitting up today. It has been definitely decided that the President and his party will leave here Saturday next. They will go direct to Washington and no stops will be made except those made necessary by railroad arrangements. The President reviewed the troops at the Presidio at 10 o'clock today.

SUDDEN DEATH OF EX. GOV. TANNER

The Well Known Former Chief Executive of Illinois, Dead in a Chicago Hotel.

Springfield, Ill., May 23.—Ex-Gov. Tanner of Illinois dropped dead in the Leland hotel this afternoon. He has not been well for some time.

Levy on a Bogus Widow.

Topeka, Kan., May 23.—The seventy acre farm which Mrs. Rachael E. Hall purchased with money received unlawfully from the government as the widow of an alleged soldier in the civil war, has been seized by the government. Mrs. Hall escaped criminal prosecution because she is blind and bed-ridden. With her farm gone she is penniless.

ADDRESS BY MRS. L. M. N. STEVENS ON WORK OF WHITE RIBBONERS

An Enthusiastic Meeting of the Badger W. C. T. U.
at Congregational Church Last Night—Mrs.
Anna Gordon Also Enthuses Audience.

The largest audience of the W. C. T. U. convention gathered at the Congregational church last evening, the auditorium and gallery being filled with an enthusiastic crowd which heard with pleasure, the two noted women who stand foremost in the ranks of the W. C. T. U. work and in the hearts of their followers, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens of Portland, Me., president of the national W. C. T. U. and Miss Anna Gordon of Evanston, Ill., national vice president at large.

Sang "Rock of Ages"
The meeting opened with singing of "Rock of Ages" by the audience after which the earnest opening prayer was offered by the Rev. R. C. Denison.

The Court street M. E. Church quartet including Miss Gora Anderson, Miss Fannie L. Clark, Frank Smith and Len Matthews, sang "Our Nation's Boys," a beautiful selection in which the melodious voices blended harmoniously. The duet by Miss Anderson and Mrs. Clark was especially pleasing. Miss Ada Pond presided at the organ.

If there are people in this city who thought that the W. C. T. U. had lost its leader by the death of Frances Willard or that her influence would die with her they should attend the state convention of the organization which she founded. Scarcely an hour of the day passes that does not hear her name spoken with loving remarks and thoughts of her, tributes to her living influence were interwoven through the entire service last evening. To those who have taken up the responsibility of her work especially does she seem ever present.

Address of Miss Gordon
To Miss Anna Gordon the memories of Miss Willard, whom she accompanied to this city three years ago, threatened to overcome her, making it especially difficult for her to speak. Miss Gordon has a beautiful sympathetic voice which is soul reaching in its power and the people listened to her with a genuine pleasure that will not soon be forgotten. When Miss Gordon finished her message of love the tears which she forced back all through her talk flowed freely.

The first words that Miss Gordon spoke were a prophecy that the influence of the life and work of Frances Willard will never die. Today the sweet, strong persuasive voice echoes the wide world through.

Continuing she alluded to the fact that many Janesville friends were privileged to be present on that first Sunday in January, three years ago, when she gave that matchless message for a pure life, a pure home and a pure government.

Few thought that it was to be her last public address and yet as she turned to leave the same platform on which the speaker was standing she said: "Good-bye, dear friends of my childhood home. Good-bye, perhaps forever, and if forever, God grant that we may meet in Heaven."

Visit To Forest Home
Many of the delegates had visited all that is left of Forest Home, the home in which little Frances wondered to her brother and sister if they would ever go anywhere or be anybody. Such a woman was to be the founder of the W. C. T. U., the largest organization of women in the world. White ribboners cannot be too thankful for the sacred origin, the noble workers and the consecrated leaders to whom is due the present influential position of the society.

At the first national convention twenty-seven years ago there were fifty-four delegates, representing but few of the states. At the last national convention there reported 300,000 white ribboners while close beside them is marching the army of boys and girls of the Loyal Temperance Legion, the intelligent material from which is to be trained the men and women of the future who are to save the nation.

The State of Maine
Miss Gordon said that she was not going to make an address, she was just going to speak a word of cheer and loving greeting. She thought in poetic justice that Maine which had worn the crown of statehood for fifty years should give the W. C. T. U. their loved and able leader. To her the great reason to be thankful for prohibition is because it gives protection of the young.

In closing Miss Gordon said that while the W. C. T. U. workers realize the power against them they are not afraid because God works for righteousness. Never doubting that eventually God's cause would succeed they have toiled on against odds that would have prevailed against souls less dauntless. Even in those dark days three years ago, when their inspired leader was born into beauty, they were not discouraged but redoubled their energies to lift the white banner, which she bore, ever higher. In doing so the white ribboners will rally closely around the beloved leader of today and at some not far distant time they shall know, with Frances Willard, how beautiful it is to be with God.

Introduced Mrs. Stevens
Mrs. Upham, the presiding officer, then introduced Mrs. Stevens, whose deep-toned masculine voice was peculiarly striking. It has splendid carrying, quality, however, and is especially adapted to her direct, forceful style of address. Mrs. Stevens spoke straight from the shoulder and sounded the battle cry of prohibition boldly, triumphantly, prophesying its national success.

She opened her address by saying that the society represented by the women wearing the white ribbon is the largest society in the world, being organized in every state and territory of the union and in fifty nations of the world. The women are gathered in this convention, not because they want to get away from their homes, but because they are home lovers and desire to make all the world homelike.

Mrs. Stevens continued with a brief introduction in which she also spoke feelingly of Miss Willard, after which she said that she intended to speak on the two great basis principles of the W. C. T. U. work, total abstinence and prohibition for the nation.

Total Abstinents
Total abstainers are not so lone some as they are supposed to be as they include the majority of the people even counting the orientals. The last half century has seen great changes in the customs of this country and today many great corporations are demanding total abstinence from their employees. It is strange that states and communities are so slow in discovering what the business world is recognizing so rapidly.

The speaker said she never apologized for talking prohibition in the pulpit on Sunday or anywhere when given the opportunity because she believes that the thou shalt nots of prohibitory law correspond with the thou shalt nots of the commandments. If she found it necessary to apologize, however, she would say that she came from the state of Maine—a state that has lived under prohibitory law longer than any other and one which before its day of prohibition was one of the poorest in the union.

Fifty years ago the twenty-second of next June the prohibitory law of Maine was enacted and during the first year the breweries and distilleries were closed.

Never since that time has the smoke of the distillery or brewery blackened the pine clad hills. In '84, the liquor element proclaimed loudly that the people of Maine did not want the law and would get rid of it if it were put to a vote. As a result the prohibitory law, which had been statutory, was placed before the people to see if they would make it permanent by placing it in the constitution.

Temperance workers, aided by the ministers and educators, did noble service and, in spite of the money and influence brought by the liquor element, on Sept. 3, 1884, the men of Maine by a vote of more than three to one placed the law in the constitution. Weak attempts have been made since to repeal it and the people are constantly reading that prohibitory law does not prohibit. An Englishman has compiled a book of statistics which has been widely quoted in spite of the fact that a book of statistics on murder would be just as valuable evidence against the good of a law against murder.

People seem glad to believe this Englishman rather than the statesmen of Maine. There has not been a governor of the state in forty years except one, that has not recommended prohibition in his inaugural address and the one exception was the governor who was not re-elected.

The question, isn't the prohibitory law violated, may be answered by another question, isn't every law violated? No law exterminates the evil against which it is aimed.

There are far more violations of the restrictions on license law, such as regards selling to minors, Sunday closing, etc., than there are of prohibitory law.

Denounces Dispensary Law
Mrs. Stevens denounced the dispensary law as another fallacious form of the license law not to be tolerated by temperance workers. This method of government license is wrong and is a failure as a temperance measure. The white ribboner wants nothing to do with it but should travel straight for prohibition. The W. C. T. U. is going to fight it, out along the prohibition line and it is going to win sometime. Great conventions such as the one now being held in Janesville hasten the day. The monument of public sentiment on the liquor traffic is being built toward Heaven, block by block, and by and bye it will be ready for the cap stone of prohibition. Mrs. Stevens closed her eloquent address with a plea to all women to join the W. C. T. U. in the name of motherhood.

of wifehood, of humanity and of the Holy Christ.

Mrs. Upham made a novel collection speech, the offering of the people was taken, and then the Court Street M. E. church quartet sang another beautiful selection with the solo by Miss Anderson and the violin obligato by Oscar Halverson.

Rev. W. A. Hall pronounced the benediction after which many lingered to enjoy a personal meeting with the national officers.

SOLDIER'S LETTER FROM PHILIPPINES

Charles Caniff, a Janesville Boy, Writes of Scenes and Incidents at Boac.

Boac Marmique, P. I.,
April 14, 1901.

Editor Gazette—As there is a little news out of the ordinary I will try and let you know what I can about it. The Filipino Peace Commission, consisting of Judge Taft, of Cincinnati, O., president, several regular army officers and representatives of the islands, besides members from several European nations, were here this afternoon inspecting the barracks and listening to the band concert when they adjourned to the Transport Sumner, which is at their disposal.

Two officers of the garrison here have been out for two days rounding up the presidents of the different cities and villages on the island, also several insurgent leaders and they all expect to meet here, in Boac, tomorrow, and hold a session to discuss the future of the islands and its form of government.

March 15—Well, the peace commissioners have gone, and I guess did not transact much business as some of the village presidents and insurgent leaders were not notified in time, so did not get here.

The commissioners and their ladies were given a banquet this noon in the officers' quarters, and it seemed good to again see an American woman. I have seen women of all nationalities since leaving home but none to compare with the American woman.

We have had two fairly brisk skirmishes in the last two weeks and succeeded in killing twenty-five or thirty natives, besides wounding a good many and capturing several rifles and ammunition, one of the rifles being a Krag Jorgensen that the insurgents got when they captured F. Co., of the 29th U. S. V.

We had one man killed and four wounded, but your humble servant has been able to dodge them so far, although they have come too close for amusement some times.

We expect about two months more of this and then the rainy season will put a stop to our mountain trip.

I received a number of Gazettes this morning and have been busy all day reading them and finding out what was going on in the old town. As there is no more news of interest I will close with regards to all friends.

Yours,
CHAS. L. CANNIFF,
Co. G., 2nd Infantry.

GROUND FLOOR PLAN OF NEW LIBRARY

Call for a Building 100x64—Three Large Arches on Main St. Front—
Description of the Interior.

The ground floor plan of the proposed public library building, as suggested by Architect Jennings, will, if carried out by the board, make a very commodious and convenient building. The plans call for a building one hundred feet long by sixty-four feet deep, fronting on Main street.

The entrance to the building will be situated in the center of the Main street front. It will consist of three large arches with doors under each. All three of the entrances open into a large room designated as the main library lobby. Near the center of this room, extending from side to side, in the form of a semi-circle, is the librarian's desk, the balance of the room back of the desk being devoted to book cases.

South of the lobby and divided from it by sliding glass partitions is the main reading room, which by this arrangement can be shut off from the noise of the lobby and still be under the eye of the librarian. Doors lead from the reference room into the reading room and also into the librarian's room, which is connected with the main book room by a door.

The children's library and reading room takes up the entire north end of the building. This room may be entered from the main lobby or through the north entrance. Near the center of this room, in the south side is the attendant's desk, which is surrounded by glass so that the attendant can keep watch of the library room and the reading room. On the opposite side of the room are cloak rooms for the children. The attendant's room and the cloak room practically divide the children's reading room from the children's library room.

Between the children's department and the main library room and library lobby are situated the cloak rooms and lavatories.

The upper story is reached by stairways inside the center of the three entrances. The stairways also run from the main lobby to the second story.

The plan gives five large, airy and well lighted rooms on the ground floor besides the librarian's room, cloak rooms and lavatories.

The board, has not yet accepted these designs, but with a few modifications they will be about what is desired. They are taking all the time necessary for the selection of plans so that there will be no mistakes in them. There is no doubt that when the building is completed it will be an honor to its donor, the library board, the city and its designer.

WE KEEP THE QUALITY UP

Tailor- Made Suits

The sale of suits this year is unprecedented. When one stops to think that almost every woman wants one it takes a great many to supply the demand. Manufacturers have made great strides in the turning out of suits. We do not try very hard to sell suits at less than $10, but at $10 we show good ones, on up the scale they go 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, &c. up to $35. Black and colors in great variety. Large, medium, and small sizes. Extra nice styles for extra small women and misses. During this month and next we will make low figures on suits to reduce stock.

Alterations Free.

We have an expert tailor who oversees all alterations.

McCall Bazar Patterns

are fast taking precedence over all other patterns. Hundreds of people in Janesville and southern Wisconsin who formerly used other makes, are now using McCall Patterns. We daily get orders from all over the state and adjoining states for McCall PATTERNS. There is a reason for this growing popularity. All 10c and 15c, none higher.

McCall Bazar Dressmaker

Containing over 600 patterns, should be in every home. Only 15c.

Wash Summer Goods

One season seems to vie with the other in creating lovely novelties. As time wears on, manufacturers get more export, but one might well think that they had reached the zenith of perfection, judging from the charming effects that grace the shelves and counters. This store never had as many or more beautiful conceits in cotton dress stuffs than it shows now. The Dimities, the Lawns, the Tissues, the Alexandria silk (fine mercerized cotton fabric,) the silk warp muslins in plain, figured, and satin stripe, the silk stripe cotton grenadines, remind one of a lovely bouquet as they are mingled together on the counter.

FAST LIFE IN THE CITY OF BEAUMONT

PEOPLE WALK STREETS ALL NIGHT OR SLEEP IN CHAIRS.

Water is Something Dreadful, and Leads Men to Patronize Saloons—A Barber That Has Secured a Bonanza—Banks So Busy They Shut Down to Catch Up.

Beaumont, Tex., May 23.—If it were not for the stimulating effect of the speculative excitement, it does not seem possible that the thousands of people who have been drawn to this town by the oil magnet could stand up under the physical discomforts which all, excepting a few fortunate ones, are obliged to endure. It is almost impossible to overdraw these discomforts.

Imagine a town of 7000 people with only two or three small hotels, a very limited number of eating places, poor sanitary arrangements and worse water, suddenly called upon to house, feed and otherwise accommodate from 20,000 to 25,000 strangers, and some days as high as 35,000. For the past four months this has been the situation in Beaumont. Of course, the greatest congestion has been and is about the hotels. At times it is physically impossible to crowd into the hotel lobbies, so densely are they packed.

The new Crosby hotel, the biggest and not the worst here, has put as many as eight people in a room intended to accommodate but two. It is the same story everywhere and yet with all the crowding and jamming and doubling up, thousands have walked the streets night after night, or slept in chairs or on the soft side of the boards. They say it is not so bad now as it was up to a couple of weeks ago, but it's so bad now that it's hard to credit that statement.

The natives here drink snufface water. It's full of things that squirm and wriggle and make faces at you. Not the kind of wriggles that Lake Erie water harbors, but big meaty fellows. A glass of Beaumont water satisfies the hunger but does not quench the thirst. There isn't enough liquid in it for that. It also gives the tenderfoot pains in the stomach and bowels and affects him in other ways.

After you have learned these things by experience one is apt to forget his temperate habits and in self defense go saloonward when thirsty. It takes about thirty minutes to get a drink in a saloon. The crowd is usually five feet deep around the bar, sometimes ten deep. You fall in behind and edge up gradually. When you finally get to the throne it usually happens that they are just out of what you want and you order something more expensive. Next to the owner of a gusher the saloonkeeper has the best paying institution here. Barber shops are working relays of barbers, are open day and night and charge twenty-five cents per shave. The barbers will not cut your hair if any one is waiting, and some one is always waiting.

The owner of a barber shop next to the New Crosby hotel, has a three year lease on his place of business. It is the best business site in town, within a few arms length of the speculative maelstrom. He was offered $10,000 for his lease by a syndicate which wanted the place for a new bank. He refused. He said he was making all the money he wanted and if he took the $10,000 he might be tempted to buy oil stock and lose it.

There are only two banks here and they have so much business that they close their doors for hours at a time to catch up.

At 12:30 p. m. one day last week this type-written sign was posted on the glass door of one of the banks:

"This bank closed until 12 o'clock tonight. We have more business than we can attend to. Please do not ask to come in."

Several new banks are projected and will be started as soon as locations can be found for them.

At the postoffice it takes just to get about an hour and a half to get to any of the windows. For several hours before the windows are opened, at 9 a. m., the crowd is lined up and the line gets longer as the day progresses. Both of the telegraph companies have offices here, and dozens of extra operators have been brought in, but the volume of business is so great that both outgoing and incoming messages are piled up several feet deep nearly all the time.

TOWN OF JANESVILLE.

The much needed rain came Tuesday and was of much benefit to the growing crops.

Rural delivery is now an assured fact, for the people of the Magnolia road and the Madison road. The route is let and the work will commence about July 1st.

Mr. Ames of this place has been taking orders of the neighboring farmers for U. S. mail boxes.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Britt were called to the city on Monday to attend the funeral of their uncle, the late Mr. Riley.

Mr. Thomas Little was not as well last week but is reported better now. Mrs. John Dennett who has been ailing for some time does not improve as fast as her friends would like to have her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Duthie spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Duthie's parents.

Mr. Henry Heitz was a caller in these parts Sunday.

Mr. Fred Lavzow had the misfortune to lose a valuable cow last week.

SOME SIDE LIGHTS ON THE CONVENTION

At last evening's session Mrs. Lawson, the corresponding secretary, announced that over 300 delegates and visitors from out of town, were in attendance at the convention.

Miss Vie Campbell of Evansville publicly proclaimed to the great audience last evening that never before had the state convention been so generously treated, so well reported by the local press. She heartily endorsed the editorial entitled "The Convention" in last evening's Gazette and commended it to every reader, especially urging the women of the W. C. T. U. to read it.

One of the visitors at the convention whom Janesville people are especially glad to see, is Mrs. W. H. Thompson, who made her home here for several years. Her husband, Rev. Thompson, was pastor of the First M. E. church.

Mrs. H. M. Holton, president of the Milwaukee county W. C. T. U., is attending the convention.

Mrs. Emma M. Shores of Ashland, is both a national and state officer, being superintendent of the work among lumbermen in both departments of the organization. She has also done efficient service as the leader of the convention singing.

Mrs. Shores is the wife of a wealthy lumberman.

There was an affecting scene at the close of Mrs. Bass' report of the world's W. C. T. U. convention yesterday, when Mrs. Cooke, the state president rose and putting her arms around her introduced Mrs. Bass as her childhood's teacher, who started her in the way she should go.

The report of the Motor, given by Mrs. M. F. Hanchett, of Madison, the editor, was one of the interesting features yesterday afternoon. The Motor is the official publication of the state union.

Mrs. M. A. B. Smith of Madison is one of the brightest women in the convention, and besides her work among legislators, is quite renowned as an authoress, writing under the name of J. Burnett Smith. Two of her books, "High Joe" and "Broken Barriers" are on sale at the convention.

Of Mrs. M. M. Sanders of Racine, superintendent of franchise, Mrs. Upham says: "If we all knew as much as she does, the men would let us vote."

Mrs. Mary C. Upham, who has made so many friends in this city by her graciousness, leaves tomorrow morning at 10:10 o'clock for Chicago where she will meet her husband, ex-Governor W. H. Upham. They will proceed at once to West Point, N. Y., Governor Upham having been honored with an appointment on the board of visitors for the military academy which is his Alma Mater.

In the beautiful memorial service yesterday morning an exquisite tribute was paid by Mrs. Bertha Nales of Plattville to the memory of Miss Ella Marshall, the Plattville W. C. T. U. secretary for twelve years; and of Mrs. Matilda Jennings, who was interested in social purity work.

About one hundred and fifty ladies enjoyed the ride to Forest Home yesterday afternoon and many of them came back laden with honey suckle and lilac. Some of them were the proud possessors of lilac roots which their owners hope will grow into flowering shrubs, fragrant souvenirs of Miss Willard's childhood's home. Another large delegation went on the ride this afternoon.

A telegram of greeting from the California State W. C. T. U. in convention at Los Angeles was read at the meeting this morning.

The report of the L. T. L. work should have given credit for thirty-five new legions in the state the past year. The motto of the Juniors is "Tremble King Alcohol, we shall grow up." The motto of the seniors is "Lifting Others as We Climb."

When Mrs. A. E. C. Strong, the motherly recording secretary of the W. C. T. U., thanked the convention yesterday for honoring her with its election, it was the fifteenth time she had been called upon to acknowledge her election to the office of recording secretary.

Biliousness is a condition characterized by a disturbance of the digestive organs. The stomach is debilitated, the liver torpid, the bowels constipated. There is a loathing of food, pains in the bowels, dizziness, coated tongue and vomiting, first of the undigested and partly digested food and then of bile. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets allay the disturbance of the stomach and create a healthy appetite. They also tone up the liver to a healthy action and regulate the bowels. Try them and you are certain to be much pleased with the result. For sale by Peoples Drug Store and King's Pharmacy.

These Facts Must Convince Every Janesville Reader.

That which follows is the experience of a resident of Janesville. Incredulity cannot exist about the statement because it can easily be investigated.

Mr. H. P. Hanson, of 103 Pleasant St., engineer, employed at the Janesville Machine Co., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me all the good that could be expected and I recommend them to any one who may be troubled with a lame back or any kidney disorder. After procuring them at the People's drug store and taking them I felt better, my back did not ache like it did, and I did not rise in the morning with a lame and sore back. I suffered from these symptoms for four or five years and I was more than pleased at the results obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills."

IMPRACICAL SENTIMENT.

It may be regarded as a lack of courtesy to offer a word of criticism on some of the sentiments expressed at the convention just closed.

The W. C. T. U. is a public organization, attempting work that is of public interest, and as such, the methods employed, are subject to either commendation or criticism.

The sincerity of the workers, their enthusiasm, and devotion to the cause of temperance reform, merits the most hearty endorsement and these qualities are recognized everywhere.

The aim of the organization is of the highest order and the accomplishment would transform the world to veritable paradise.

But zeal, and energy, and devotion to a cause, while always commendable, are not the only requirements necessary to success and it is possible for an organization, possessing all of these, graces and inspired by a love of humanity that is God like in character, to be so handicapped by impractical methods and so influenced by sentiment as to accomplish but little in the way of results.

This is the weakness of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and is a source of regret to the millions of good temperance people, who are with them in sympathy, but do not endorse their erratic methods or say "amen" to much of the sentimental sentiment expressed.

In the late convention the army canteen commanded a good deal of attention and the sentiment expressed and endorsed to the echo, indicated that the organization believed that the cause of temperance had been wonderfully strengthened by the abolishment of the government bar. Blind to the facts that all point the other way, because carried away by impractical sentiment.

Miss Carrie Nation is eulogized and her hatchet glorified notwithstanding the fact of her lunacy so well established that public sentiment no longer holds her accountable.

Suffrage for women is still an absorbing thought, and in its culmination, the acme of reform possibilities and ambitions will be realized. It is safe to assume that with suffrage legalized, not one woman in ten the country over, would care enough about it, to exercise her political right.

There are something like 4,000 W. C. T. U. women in Wisconsin, but there is a round million of temperance men and women in the state, who both practice and teach practical temperance. What is true of Wisconsin numerically, is true of the country at large in comparative strength.

No one has ever accused the organization of egotism, because the motive back of the work is too pure to admit of that sort of criticism, but some of the methods pursued and some of the doctrines taught, border so closely on fanaticism, that the rank and file of Christian women are not identified with it, and the vast army of temperance men, while in sympathy with the practical features of the work, do not endorse the radical measures, or subscribe to the peculiar faith of these reformers. The constitution of the order would be strengthened by a plank labeled "conservatism."

There are some problems in life so simple that they may be solved by commencing in the middle, and working both ways, but the temperance problem does not belong to this class. The fountain is running wide open and the flow will never be stopped by damming the stream. The stuff finds its level in the stomach made ready for it by appetite, and this appetite thoroughly formed and in possession of its victim, is seldom thwarted by law.

There is one field of opportunity where the harvest is ever ripe, and where temperance never fails in effective work, and that is the home and in the hearts and minds of child life. If reform energies were directed in to this channel, and faithfully applied for a generation, the transformation would be marvelous.

The W. C. T. U. is doing some effective work along this line. If it will abandon impractical theories and devote more attention to starting young men and women out right in life, it will enlist more hearty support, and the handful of reformers will become a strong army of conservative and effective workers.

WHAT IS SUCCESS?

A great deal is being said nowadays about success, and men who have acquired fortunes, or prospered in business are referred to in a way that gives the impression, that they are about the only class who succeed.

What is success, anyway, and is its attainment possible to average humanity? Success is simply accomplishment. It may be of high or low order, and may or not have a purpose back of it.

A man may succeed in getting gloriously drunk, and make all kinds of a fool of himself, without purposing to do anything of the kind, in fact, he may purpose to keep sober, and may be overcome by temptation. Very few people plan to live the life of a drunkard, but quite an army succeed along this line, without planning.

What is true of the drunkard is true of all sorts of crime and criminals. The man who succeeds in wrecking a bank proposes to live an honest life, but an ambition to become suddenly rich gains possession of him, and planning, he succeeds in becoming a first-class criminal.

The successes of life on the down grade are easy, because climbing is more difficult than sliding.

The best successes of life are wrought out in every-day experiences, and while many of them are not startling, all are important, and mean much to the individual toiler.

The boy or girl closes the day at school with perfect lessons and deportment, and adds another day to the score of success. The same energy and spirit wins the diploma. Beyond the diploma may be either success or failure, depending entirely on what the life accomplishes. If the best results are attained, back of them must be a purpose, and every energy must bend in compliance.

The highest measure of success is not computed in dollars or determined by mental or physical development. It means more than either and is the heritage of every man and woman, who performs faithfully and conscientiously the every day work of life, in whatever channel the lot is cast.

All honest work is honorable, and while faithful effort may not always produce a large harvest of results, it never fails to bring the worker the consciousness of work well done. Men and women do not live in vain, who live to a purpose, and the eulogy of a purposeful life after it is closed, is a tribute to success of the highest order.

It is to be regretted that the Janesville Cotton mills are forced to admit, in these times of general prosperity, that they can not afford to run their business. It is undoubtedly true that if the plant was equipped with modern machinery that conditions would be different. Competition compels every business to keep abreast of the times. Improvements added every year for the last dozen years would have saved the factory from a $40,000 outlay, and the conditions that now confront it.

The talk about an organization to renominate Hon. John C. Spooner is premature and uncalled for. If Mr. Spooner can be persuaded to accept the nomination there is no power in the state that can prevent his receiving it. The republicans of the state recognize his ability and will honor themselves, and the state, by honoring him, when his term of office expires. The nation at large has an interest in Senator Spooner, and Wisconsin will not be slow to recognize this fact.

The ice bill is already cutting ice around the state, and the harvest of protest promises to be abundant. It will be a blessing to the good name and prosperity of the state, if the law is pronounced unconstitutional. Wisconsin can hardly afford to speculate on an asset so perishable as frozen water.

Andrew Carnegie, impelled by a motive every one will honor, has done nobly by his native and adopted countries. But his gifts to the universities of Scotland may work more harm than good.

While religious scruples are so cheap, the compulsory vaccination law will not amount to much. Most any one can borrow enough religious scruples to make up the full quota.

TRIES TO KILL WITNESS.

William Park Dead After an Exchange of Shots.

Santa Fe, N. M., May 23.—William Park was shot and killed at Central, Grant county, in the office of a justice of the peace during the preliminary examination of May Esmond, charged with a serious crime. James A. Wiley had been giving damaging testimony in which he used Park's name. The witness was just concluded, when Park jumped from his chair, drew his gun, and commenced firing at Wiley. Wiley rose, turned half around, pulling his six-shooter as he did so, and returned the fire. Several shots were fired by both men, as well as others in the room. One of the bullets entered Park's right side, coming out of the left side near the heart. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of death at the hands of parties unknown.

STEAMER HARTFORD ASHORE.

Goes Aground on Calves Island—Passengers Still Aboard.

Lyme, Conn., May 23.—The steamer Hartford of the Hartford and New York Transportation company, ran aground on Calves Island, at the mouth of the Connecticut river, this morning, while slowly picking her way through a dense fog. At present she is stuck fast and it is impossible to tell what damage has been done. There is little danger, however, to the passengers, all of whom have remained on board. A tug has been sent for and an effort will be made to free the steamer from her position.

ANNOUNCE DEATH OF E. G. NEWHALL

DIED WITHOUT CONSCIOUSNESS AT EAU CLAIRE, WIS.

Theodore W. Goldin Sat Up With Him in the Hotel Lobby On the Night He Was Suffocated But Noticed Nothing Wrong—Duty Will Be Brought to This City.

A message was received by relatives in this city this morning announcing the death of E. G. Newhall, who was overcome by illuminating gas at his room in a hotel in Eau Claire on Monday night.

He left for a trip in the northern part of the state two weeks ago in the best of spirits and several letters received from him by relatives in this city show that he was having a good time there. Theodore W. Goldin saw him in the hotel at Eau Claire on Monday night and sat in the office with him until he retired which was about eight o'clock.

Mr. Newhall left a call at the office for five o'clock intending to continue his travels the next day. Tuesday morning the clerk went to his room to wake him and noticed that the gas was escaping.

He succeeded in getting the door open and found Mr. Newhall unconscious in bed. After finding Mr. Newhall, the clerk called Mr. Goldin, who summoned a doctor. They worked over him until nine o'clock without rousing him and finally had him carried to a hospital where he died this morning without recovering consciousness.

E. G. Newhall reached his eighty-third year on the fourteenth of last December. He came to Johnston with his father, Elisha Newhall and his brother Wright and sister Angellette in 1837 or '38. At that time they were the third family to settle in Johnston. Norman Smith and family and Ca'eb B. Hill and family having settled there before them. His father moved to Johnston from Indiana. He has been a resident of the town of Johnston since that time, and although he has been in this city the most of the time for several years he never gave up his residence in Johnston and went there at every election to vote. He had a large amount of property at Johnston and was considered one of the wealthy men of the county. His wife from whom he had been separated died about eighteen years ago. His only near relatives left surviving him are his sister, Mrs. Angelette Morse and his nephew Martin H. Morse of this city and his niece, Mrs. W. S. Pember of Johnston. His remains will arrive here this evening at 7:15 o'clock. Notice of the funeral will be given later.

Mrs. Hugh Chapin Dead
At ten o'clock this morning Mrs. Hugh Chapin of the town of Janesville passed beyond the cares of this earth. The deceased was sixty-two years of age and had been sick about six weeks so that her death was not wholly unexpected. She had been a resident of this county for a great many years and was loved by all who knew her. She leaves surviving her two children, Lillian Chapin and Arthur Chapin and a grandson, Hugh Hemmingsway. The funeral notice will be given later.

James Irish
James Irish, who has been actively engaged in business at Clinton for over fifty years and for some ten or twelve years of that time was post master, after an illness of a year or more, died at his home here, at the age of 73 years. His wife, to whom he was married in 1849, died a few months ago. He had three daughters, Mrs. E. S. Smith and Mrs. R. W. Cheever of this place and Mrs. Rev. H. W. Stearns of Grand Island, Neb.

Mrs. J. L. Bloss Funeral
The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. J. L. Bloss were held from the family home at 302 Ravine street at two o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. Robert C. Denison, pastor of the First Congregational church officiated. The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were C. D. Child, F. L. Smith, F. H. Farnsworth and George H. Drummond.

Mrs. Emma Toldrian Funeral
The funeral of Mrs. Emma Toldrian was held this morning at nine o'clock from the home, 406 Center street and from St. Mary's church at ten o'clock. The services were largely attended by the numerous friends of the deceased. The interment was at Mt. Olivet.

TO GROVES-BARNES MUSIC CO.
S. C. Burnham & Co., Janesville, Wis., Agents.
Gentlemen:—It affords me great pleasure to give an unsolicited testimonial, where it is merited. I must conscientiously admit that the "Blasius" piano, purchased from you is a superb instrument in every respect. The tone is rich and even, the scale perfect, and the action the most elastic and perfectly regulated. I have seen, I most heartily recommend the "Blasius" piano to those wishing a first class up-to-date instrument.

Yours very respectfully,
W. T. THIELLE, B. M.,
Professor of Music.

Utter St. John Wedding
William D. L. Utter and Miss Ada E. St. John of this city were married last evening at the Presbyterian parsonage by the Rev. J. T. Henderson. The wedding was a very quiet affair the only ones present at the ceremony being Mr. and Mrs. Sutter of Chicago, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, who acted as witnesses.

The young couple are both well known young people of the city, the groom being the popular drug clerk at Sarasy's drug store and the bride being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. St. John, 159 Center avenue, and who for some time was bookkeeper for Dr. James Mills.

The wedding supper was served at the home of the newly wedded couple after which they left on a wedding trip to Fond du Lac and other points. The young couple will make their home in this city on their return. Sent Loehnis' Body Home
The body of George P. Loehnis, who died yesterday on a St. Paul train just out of the city, was taken to his home at Sun Prairie at 6:40 last evening by his brother and brother-in-law, who came to this city for that purpose. He was forty-four years old and belonged to one of the best families in the neighborhood in which he resided. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his death.

He went to Texas last February in the hopes of regaining his health but grew worse instead of better and tried to get home before he died. He had almost succeeded when death overtook him. The State Bank of Orfordville, Wis., is responsible and asks a careful scrutiny as to its promoters. Is recommended by four governors and many banks. Pays four per cent. on six months and 5 per cent. on 12 months time deposits.

RIBBON SALE
Friday morning. Greatest sale of ribbons ever held in the city of Janesville. Over 15,000 yards of the finest ribbons will be placed on sale at The Fair.

AN UNPLEASANT DEAL IN LEAF TOBACCO

A Farmer Who Sold a Crop to Two Dealers and the Consequences of That Act.

It is not always the tobacco dealer that gets the best of the farmer but once in a while the farmer takes a chance and gets the best of the dealer although he does himself an everlasting injury in their estimation.

Monday afternoon about five o'clock A. N. Jones called at the home of John Barnard, who works a portion of the old Joseph Spaulding farm in the town of Harmony and looked at a crop of tobacco belonging to Barnard. After considerable talk he bought the tobacco and agreed to pay him three and one-half cents a pound for it. He also agreed to allow him $5 extra for the trouble of delivering it.

Jones was in the company of John Souman, another dealer, who heard the whole conversation. He took out his contract book to write out a contract when Barnard spoke up saying he didn't want any contract and asked when he should deliver the tobacco. Jones told him to bring it in Wednesday morning.

On Tuesday morning Barnard came to Jones' warehouse and told Jones that he could not deliver the tobacco as his brother had sold the crop a short time before without his knowledge to James Scott, who buys for Soverhill at 3 1/2 cents, and that he would have to deliver it to them.

Jones was not satisfied with the statement and decided to investigate the matter. He went up to Soverhill & Porter's warehouse and found out that Scott had bought the crop on Tuesday morning, the day after he had sold it to him. Scott had paid 4 cents for it and made a contract for its delivery on Wednesday.

Wednesday morning three teams belonging to Barnard brought the tobacco to town and Jones met them and demanded that the tobacco be taken to his warehouse. Barnard refused to accede to his demands and went on up to Soverhill & Porter's with the crop.

After learning the facts in the case Mr. Soverhill determined to refuse the crop and when Barnard appeared at the warehouse he was told he could either deliver the crop to Jones or take it back home as they would not receive it.

Barnard took the crop over to Jones' warehouse and was told to keep it as Jones did not care to have any deal with him. Shut out at both warehouses he consulted a lawyer who told him he could make Soverhill & Porter take the crop as he had a contract with them and not with Jones.

Soverhill & Porter consulted their attorney in regard to the deal and were told that they could be made to pay for the crop, so rather than to have any trouble over the matter they notified Barnard that he could bring in the crop which he did today.

The only satisfaction that the dealers got out of the deal was that for his underhand way of doing business Barnard was obliged to go to the expense of making two round trips from his home to this city.

The dealers all say that a man that will do a thing of this kind and will break his word to sell a crop already sold, because he has received a higher offer, is a good man to keep clear of.

OPEN GOLF SEASON ON MEMORIAL DAY

Match Between the Married and Single Men—Scores for Position on the Teams.

The opening of the golf season will be inaugurated at the grounds of the Mississippi Golf club, on Decoration day, May 30. A great amount of work has been done on the grounds this spring, and by that time they will be in shape for the opening of the season.

It was decided to have a team match between the married and single men of the club, the losers to pay for new markers for the holes.

The match will be followed by a supper and dance. Smith's orchestra has been engaged for the occasion, and it is intended that the opening will be one of the events of the season. The match will no doubt prove interesting, as each side is confident of winning out. The contest will take place in the afternoon. Following is the list of players:

MARRIED MEN—	SINGLE MEN—
H. G. Carter	Albert Schaller
J. P. Baker	H. H. McKinney
F. E. Fife	Charles Dunn
C. C. MacLean	Frank Baker
C. H. Aelterberg	Leo Brownell
J. J. Hill	S. D. Tallman
F. C. Grant	F. S. Sheldon
Charles Schaller	Geo. Banman
C. P. MacLean	B. Brewer
O. Sutherland	Boss King
A. C. Jenkins	Geo. Brownell
H. S. McGiffin	Mark Eastwick
H. McNamara	Edward Peterson
George King	John G. Rixford
F. Puhler	Herbert Goldin
H. Y. Allen	E. A. Hyde
Arthur Harris	Bollen Lewis
Charles Gagan	Alex Russell
F. H. Jackson	Frank Sanner

Yesterday was the last day for handing in scores for position on the team. On account of the bad weather and the condition of the grounds, several of the players were not able to hand in scores, and those handed in are not as low as might be under favorable conditions.

The sixteen men who will compose the team, and their positions and scores for eighteen holes are as follows:

H. H. McKinney	88
F. P. Baker	89
Leo Brownell	89
F. E. Fife	100
Charles Dunn	101
J. P. Baker	102
C. C. MacLean	102
H. G. Carter	102
S. D. Tallman	103
O. Sutherland	103
A. C. Jenkins	103
Chas. Aelterberg	110
H. S. McGiffin	112
George Bauman	112
Ross King	113
F. Puhler	121

Each member of the team is subject to a challenge for a match for position by the player next below him. Any member of the club desirous of getting on the team can challenge the lowest man to a match for position.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF BADGER STATE

The iron mines at North Freedom, near Baraboo, which have been out of use for several years, will again be revived and active operations begun. The arrival of machinery this spring and the announcement that a 400-foot shaft will be sunk is an indication that iron ore in sufficient quantity and of good quality has been found.

Short change men are at work near Portage. A man charged with horse stealing is said to be one of the swindlers.

Judge G. C. Prentiss of La Crosse says he will prosecute Attorney W. Winter, chairman of the board of supervisors if the latter signs the order for the appropriation of $300 to the Fourth of July celebration of the Modern Woodmen, which is to be held there. Judge Prentiss holds that the appropriation was unlawful and that if the chairman signs it he will personally prosecute him for misappropriation of public funds. Chairman Winter declares he will sign the order and if he keeps his threat a lawsuit is inevitable.

Col. John H. Knight of Ashland has commenced suit against J. S. Stearns, of the Stearns Lumber Co., for $60,000, making a demand for a portion of the profits from sawing Bad River Indian reservation timber. Elaborate preparations are being made for the reception to Lieutenant Brooke, Shuman and the other La Crosse soldiers who have returned with the Forty-fifth infantry from Manila. They will arrive in La Crosse about June 15, and will be met at the depot by the mayor, city council and the local military companies.

One of the most extensive cases of skin grafting on record has just left Dodd's hospital, Ashland, entirely healed. The surfaces grafted were 175 square inches in area, and about fifty grafts, varying from half an inch to an inch in size were transplanted. The grafts were removed from the patient's own body.

The Milwaukee joint relief committee to raise funds for the people of Jacksonville, Fla., who were burned out of their homes recently, had collected $962 at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Ex-Governor Scofield, who was at the Pfister, Milwaukee, yesterday, said he had recovered more of his household goods than were stolen after he moved them to Oconto, and that the two men—George W. Worthington of Milwaukee, and Joseph St. Clair of Cleveland—would be sentenced today. The prisoners, the governor said, had helped him locate some of the stolen property which they had hidden, sold or pawned. Some of his private papers were found under a number pile at Marinette.

$38,000 Fire in Cincinnati.
Cincinnati, O., May 23.—Fire in the carriage trimming works of Buob & Scheu, 408, 410 and 412 East Concord street, destroyed $30,000 worth of stock and damaged the building to the extent of $8,000.

Tried to Kill His Wife.
Mishawaka, Ind., May 23.—Thomas Smith, twenty years old, a prominent citizen of Sturgis, Mich., who had resided in this city for two months, shot himself in the head. His young wife, to whom he was married only a year ago, had separated from him. Smith last night appeared at the residence of his wife and when she declined by messenger to see him, he sent a bullet into his brain. He had attempted to shoot his wife on the street in the evening.

Trust Causes a Suicide.
Lexington, Ky., May 23.—Because the Tobacco trust was driving him out of business as a tobacco buyer in Central Kentucky, Horace Means committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart. The trust cut his salary in two this year, and said that the next year they would discontinue the services of all buyers in this territory.

A Very Remarkable Remedy.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer at the shore, and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever.' Sold by Peoples' Drug Store and King's Pharmacy.

Pretty Children

"We have three children. Before the birth of the last one my wife used four bottles of MOTHER'S FRIEND. If you had the pictures of our children, you could see at a glance that the last one is healthiest, prettiest and finest-looking of them all. My wife thinks Mother's Friend is the greatest and grandest remedy in the world for expectant mothers."—Written by a Kentucky Attorney-at-Law.

MOTHER'S FRIEND prevents nine-tenths of the suffering incident to childbirth. The coming mother's disposition and temper remain unruffled throughout the ordeal, because this relaxing, penetrating liniment relieves the usual distress. A good-natured mother is pretty sure to have a good-natured child. The patient is kept in a strong, healthy condition, which the child also inherits. Mother's Friend takes a wife through the crisis quickly and almost painlessly. It assists in her rapid recovery, and wards off the dangers that so often follow delivery.

Sold by druggists for $1 a bottle.

How Strong Are You?
The dial of the punching machine won't answer that question. Strength depends on nutrition. When the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are diseased, the body fails to receive its full supply of nourishment and hence grows weak. That is why no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and the allied organs of digestion and nutrition. The food eaten is then perfectly digested and assimilated and the body is made strong in the only possible way—by nutrition.

"I was troubled with indigestion for about two years," writes Wm. Bowker, Esq., of Julietta, La. Co., Idaho. "I tried different doctors and remedies but to no avail until I wrote to you and you told me what to do. I suffered with a pain in my stomach and left side and thought that it would kill me. Now I am glad to write this and let you know that I am all right. I can do my work now without pain and I don't have that tired feeling that I used to have. Five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and two vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets' cured me." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets stimulate the liver.

Gentlemen:—I enclose you contract for the supply of coffee for the Bailey Catering Company, at the Pan-American Exposition, to be held in Buffalo during the coming summer. In the selection of your coffee, in competition with samples submitted by a number of the largest Importers and Roasters in the country, I have been governed entirely by the quality of the same. My experience with the coffee supplied to me during the past year or so by your house has been so uniformly satisfactory that I feel that I could do no better than to complete this arrangement with you. The amount of coffee which this involves will probably amount to as much or more than has ever been supplied to one consumer in the same length of time, and I congratulate you upon your enterprise in having secured this contract.

Very truly,

LOSE MILLIONS IN TOBACCO CURING; ADVICE TO WISCONSIN FARMERS

More Care Must Be Taken to Dry the Leaf—Badger Product is in Great Demand—All Good Domestic Cigars Have It for Binders.

Leaf tobacco, grown in Wisconsin, is just now in great demand all over the country. New York manufacturers are putting in sorting houses throughout the tobacco districts of the state, and the prices are going up with the quality produced in the curing. The farmers of the state, says Luis Jackson, industrial commissioner for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, are losing $1,000,000 a year because of defective curing houses. Mr. Jackson passed through Milwaukee yesterday says the Sentinel, in company with a New York tobacco dealer who is looking for a location for a sorting house and offered a few suggestions as to how to overcome the defects of the present drying and curing methods.

Mr. Jackson claims that today there is not a first-class cigar, domestic, which does not have Wisconsin tobacco as a binder, and that the 36,000,000 pounds raised each year is insufficient to supply the demands for it. In fact, the demand will make a boom in Wisconsin tobacco, and at once. "I have just returned from New York," said Mr. Jackson yesterday, "and find that Wisconsin tobacco is now recognized there, not only as a tobacco of high grade, but that the state is looked to and acknowledged as the source of the principal supply of 'binder' tobacco for the United States."

Wisconsin Binders Plenty. "That is: A cigar is composed of a 'filler,' the inside filling; a 'binder,' which goes around the filler, and binds it, and a 'wrapper' or outside covering. You can hardly pick up a domestic cigar in the United States but what has a Wisconsin binder. No high grade domestic cigar is without it. To those who have seen Wisconsin tobacco gradually rise to national prominence, the prestige it now holds in the market, is indeed a gratification. Our railway has for many years paid as much attention to the promotion and development of the tobacco interests, as it has to any interest that augments our transportation traffic."

"We have of late secured some of the sorting houses of several New York firms on our tracks, including the American Tobacco Company, now the American Cigar Company, which has put up a solid three story brick sorting house and warehouse at Madison, Wis., 300 feet long and is now building a 150 foot addition. "This concern has just decided to build a similar large sorting house at Sparta, and the ground there is now being staked out for the plant. Between four and five hundred hands, mostly women, will be employed there four months of the year, sorting tobacco leaves. This concern is figuring on one more location in the state. A. Cohn & Co. of New York have just completed a large sorting house and warehouse at Madison, and there are several other new plants, notably at Janesville, where Green and Company and others have erected fine buildings."

Sorters Go to the University. A sorting house employs from fifty hands upwards, the pay is good and the girls easily find employment in the interim. Some of them are even taking special courses at the university.

"The new plant at Sparta is important to that section, as it will create a new tobacco growing area. We hope soon to secure the next large house for La Crosse. It has always been our aim to have tobacco growing in the whole territory of the state south of a line from Milwaukee to La Crosse. Viroqua is now an important tobacco center and even Boscobel is coming to the front. The average acreage of tobacco growing in Wisconsin is five acres to the farm. Some farmers have only one acre to tobacco, but there are a few having as high as sixty. Farms devoted entirely to tobacco do not exist, nor are they desirable; but a few acres grown by each farmer is the proper status, and quality should always be kept in view. Five acres of tobacco, cultivated from the ground up, is about as much acreage as one man can take care of."

Wisconsin Has 30,000 Acres. "Wisconsin has about 30,000 acres in tobacco. The average yield per acre is about 1,200 pounds. The crop is harvested in August and September, and the bunches are hung in tobacco sheds or barns to dry and cure. This drying takes about three or four months.

Loss in the Curing. "The leaf is reduced to one-third its weight in drying. Here is where the most of our Wisconsin growers are defective in the principle of losing nothing of the hog but the squeal; the barn in most instances, has no roof ventilation and the moisture does not pass off; all exhalations from the tobacco hang under the roof, the vapor cannot get out, and the tobacco leaf being of the nature of a sponge reabsorbs the hanging moisture. It throws off and reabsorbs according to barometric conditions."

"With a ventilated roof the foul air is disposed of. Quite a percentage of tobacco is damaged and rotted by this foul air. If this defective construction is remedied, the farmers of Wisconsin will be about $1,000,000 ahead each year in the enhanced value of their crop. The average barn turns out about 60 per cent. of good tobacco, and about 40 per cent. poor. A ventilated barn will turn out 80 per cent. good tobacco and 20 per cent. poor, with the 30 per cent. about one cent a pound, and sometimes two cents higher in price than the 60 per cent."

Sells for Smoking and Binding. "The ventilated barn not alone gives a larger percentage of good tobacco, but a higher quality for the whole. The present average price paid for the 60 per cent. of good tobacco is 7½ cents a pound. This is "binder," the 40 per cent. inferior is sold for pipe smoking, cheap goods and largely for export, at about 3 cents a pound. In the Onondago section of New York state, they have recently put up some new model barns, which are resulting in a higher price to farmers for their tobacco. One farmer got 5 cents a pound extra for his leaf."

"The barns there have a four feet stone or brick foundation with flues built into the wall, these run from the outside to the inside of the building and open upward. On the roof there are galvanized iron ventilators. The flues and ventilators together prevent the moisture and foul air from accumulating under the roof. A five acre crop barn costs about $500, or about $100 a crop acre, with a little more expense which will pay big interest on the investment. A modern ventilated barn can be erected. The climate of Wisconsin has all to do with the fine quality of the crop raised. Everybody in the east concerned in the tobacco and cigar trade speaks highly of Wisconsin leaf."

AMUSEMENT NOTES

One thing can be said of Messrs. Rusco and Holland, is that they have the knack of putting together a minstrel show that has no tiresome waits, or acts; everything goes with a hurry and excitement. They will appear at the Myers Grand on Friday evening, May 24.

So extraordinary and massive are some of the mechanical devices in Chas. H. Yale's newest piece, "The Evil Eye," that duplicate portions of the machinery are necessary in order to present the same. Some of the scenes which are known as "Trick Sets," require eight hours to prepare. Two special cars will be required to bring the scenic effects used by the company to this city, and every opportunity for the splendid display of it will be afforded on the stage of the Myers Grand where the piece is billed for an engagement of one night, Monday, June 3rd.

CALDWELL-FENNER WEDDING.

Niece of H. D. McKinney of This City, Married in Memphis, Tenn.

The Nashville, Tenn., American of Monday, contains the following notice: "Seldom has Nashville society been excited by as great a surprise as it will receive in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Louise Caldwell to Guy F. Fenner of New Orleans, which took place yesterday at 12:30 o'clock, in the Bethel House at Columbia, Rev. W. B. Capers officiating.

"Their engagement dates back for several months. Their marriage is the culmination of a pretty love story which began with Mr. Fenner's introduction to Miss Caldwell when she and her mother were in New Orleans at Mardi Gras. He, however, has been a friend of his bride's family since childhood.

"There was no objection to Mr. Fenner's suit on the part of Miss Caldwell's parents, further than their urging a postponement of the marriage until fall on account of her youth.

"Miss Caldwell, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Caldwell, and a debutante of this season, is a typical American girl, handsome, vivacious, and witty. On account of her charming individuality and sweet nature she is not only popular with the younger element, but beloved by all the sets of society.

"The groom is a son of Judge Charles Fenner of New Orleans, and represents an old, aristocratic Louisiana family. His social prominence is not less marked than his personal popularity and his business ability."

Miss Caldwell is a niece of H. D. McKinney and visited at his home a few years ago. Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Caldwell, are well known in this city, and have many warm friends residing here. They spend the warm summer months in this neighborhood nearly every season, visiting relatives and friends.

CREED REVISION THE ISSUE

All Speakers at Presbyterian Assembly Mention Subject.

RECENT STORIES DENOUNCED

Missionaries in China Defended from Alleged "Venomous" Criticism—Report of the Committee on Church Politics Presented by Dr. Purvis.

Philadelphia, May 23.—That creed revision is the leading issue of the Presbyterian general assembly was strongly evidenced during today's sessions, when almost every speaker took occasion to mention the subject. Shortly before adjournment the Rev. Richard S. Holmes of Pittsburgh startled the commissioners by launching into a discussion of the question, but when he stopped long enough to announce that he simply was leading up to a point in connection with his appeal for assistance in removing the mortgage from the New York Presbyterian building no objections were offered. A motion was made to hold the meetings of the assembly during the debate on revision at the Academy of Music, but was not acted upon, as the order of the day took precedence. The committee on church polity presented a report containing numerous decisions on overtures submitted by various presbyteries. A factional disturbance, in the Church of the Covenant at Williamsport, Pa., which had been referred to the judicial committee, was ordered tried according to the provisions of the book of discipline. Robert E. Speer of New York, secretary of the board of foreign missions, defended the missionaries against the "malignant and venomous criticism" which he said they had suffered since the boxer uprising in China. Several foreign missionaries made brief addresses while the report of the committee on foreign missions was under discussion. The first matter to come before the assembly at the morning session was the report of the committee on church politics, presented by the Rev. Dr. George T. Purvis of New York, chairman. The report contained decisions on overtures submitted by various presbyteries.

Rev. Dr. F. W. Taylor Chosen. Quincy, Ill., May 23.—The diocesan convention of the Episcopal church closed after voting to meet here again next year. Rev. Frederick W. Taylor, D. D., of Springfield, was elected coadjutor for Rt. Rev. Bishop Burgess, who is critically ill at his old home in St. Albans, Vt.

United Presbyterians Meet. Des Moines, Ia., May 23.—The general assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America convened in this city last evening. Contrary to general expectations, the meeting will prove an important one from the standpoint of suggested changes in the creed.

LABOR TROUBLES.

Holds Strike's End Is Near. Washington, D. C., May 23.—President O'Connell of the International Association of Machinists estimates that the number of machinists engaged in the strike is 40,000. He claims to be satisfied with the situation and has confidence in the result. "By next Monday morning," he said, "probably 90 per cent of the men who went out will be back at work with their demands granted. The other 10 per cent are mostly on the Pacific coast and in several Ohio cities. San Francisco is the only place where we look for a protracted strike."

Tie-Up Continues in Philadelphia. Philadelphia, Pa., May 23.—Leaders of the machinists' unions last night estimated the number of men on strike in this city at about 1,500. It is said that these figures will not be materially changed by expected concessions, as other shops are likely to be tied up before another day. Forty-eight men employed at the Southwark iron foundry have joined the strikers. The Edco-Electric Dynamo company has effected a compromise with its men and 156 machinists will return to work tomorrow.

Settlement at Alliance, Ohio. Alliance, O., May 23.—An amicable adjustment of the differences between the striking machinists and the Morgan Engineering company was reached last night. No discrimination is to be made between union and nonunion workmen. The company concedes 10 per cent increase in wages, fifty-five hours' work to constitute a week's work, time and a quarter for overtime up to 10 o'clock and all holidays, time and a half after 10 o'clock.

Strike in Chicago Near End. Chicago, May 23.—Only five small strikes are on in Chicago as the outcome of the general tie-up threatened in local machine shops last Monday. Three others have been amicably settled by granting the nine-hour day and the increased wage scale, and it is expected that the International Association of Machinists and the larger manufacturing concerns will arrive at a friendly agreement within the next few days.

More Out in St. Louis. St. Louis, Mo., May 23.—Five hundred machine hands and woodworkers in local planing mills went on a strike today. The proprietors of the mills involved are unanimous in their intention not to give the nine-hour day asked for. The strikers are confident.

Elgin, Ill., May 23.—The Elgin city council last night passed an ordinance to employ only union laborers and to pay $1.75 per day for nine hours' work.

MRS. UPHAM AGAIN MADE PRESIDENT

know lovingly as Miss Willard's church, the final business session of the convention was held in the Congregational church.

Mrs. Nina Case of Monroe conducted the devotional meeting which included a Scriptural reading by herself, prayer by Mrs. Clemmer of Monroe and beautifully rendered vocal solos by Mrs. E. W. Shores of Ashland and Miss Lorene Gardner of Monroe. Miss Gardner has a sweet and very powerful voice which she uses effectively.

Various Elections

Mrs. Maria T. Hanchett of Madison was elected editor of the Motor. Mrs. Daisy Athion and Mrs. K. V. Stevens of this city were elected delegates at large to the national convention. The other national delegates were elected as follows: Mrs. R. A. Odell, Whitehall; Mary A. Wilson, Sparta; Mrs. Margaret Williams, Fennimore; Mrs. J. F. Scott, Ashland; Mrs. Eva C. Lewis, Johnston; Mrs. V. O. Warren, Green Bay; and Mrs. Isaac Ellsworth, Milwaukee.

The Resolutions Adopted

The report of the resolutions committee deplored the attitude of the last legislature towards various reform bills and urged every woman to protest by petition against the repeal of the canteen law which comes to be pending at the next session of congress and to do every thing possible to secure the anti-cigarette law and the curfew law throughout the state. The resolutions declared for total abstinence for the individual and prohibition for the nation; for social purity; for the continuance of educational work; for one standard of purity for men and women and for equal rights for all, both in the home, the pulpit and at the ballot box.

The resolutions were comprehensive in their thanks to the people of this city for hospitable entertainment.

Care of the Health

A valuable paper on the care of the health to prevent intemperance was presented by Mrs. H. Sanderson of Ripon after which she conducted a series of restful physical exercises which were participated in by the audience.

Mrs. E. W. Shores of Ashland conducted an excellent method of work symposium after which the children's choir of the Congregational church sang an appropriate selection in its customary artistic manner. After considerable miscellaneous business the convention adjourned.

At 4:35 o'clock a children's rally was held at the First M. E. church. Miss Anna Gordon the world's secretary of the W. C. T. U., conducting the meeting. The Junior choir of the Presbyterian church sang a very beautiful selection.

The program for this evening is as follows:

AWE A MOB AT OPEN GRAVE.

Brave Clergymen Hold Armed Enemies of Ralph J. White at Bay.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 23.—Brave clergymen kept at bay 3,000 armed farmers who had gathered at the grave of Ralph J. White, a murderer-suicide, at Sweet Valley. At the entrance to the cemetery six men were stationed to prevent the entrance of the coffin and when the casket bearers arrived they were met with shotguns. Then the fearless ministers battled their way to the gates and ordered the throng to disperse and avoid legal retaliation. By lantern light the bearers lowered the body to the grave and closed it for the third time. The anti-Whites threaten to remove the body, and say it will never be found again. The coffin was discovered at the bottom of a pond near the graveyard. It had been weighed down with chains and stones and sunk in sixty feet of water by White's friends to prevent mutilation.
